West Ukrainian National University wins CIMA Excellence Award

10 December, 2021, London, United Kingdom

West Ukrainian National University announced today that it has won a CIMA Teaching Excellence Award at the second edition of the CIMA Excellence Awards virtual ceremony on 10 December 2021. This award recognises a subject lecturer who has demonstrated excellent engagement with students and effectively enhanced their understanding of the subject.

Sponsored by the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants, the global accounting organisation representing CIMA and the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA), the annual CIMA Excellence Awards recognise institutions and individuals across the world going above and beyond to shape the next generation of Chartered Global Management Accountants and lead the accounting profession into the future.

Ruslan Brukhansky, Doctor of Science, Professor, Academician of the Academy of Economic Sciences of Ukraine, Head of the Ternopil regional branch of the Federation of Auditors, Accountants and Financiers of AIC, Head of the “Accounting and Taxation” Specialty Providing Group, West Ukrainian National University, said:

“For the West Ukrainian National University, the quality of teaching and learning is a top priority. These components provide a high level of training for future professionals in the field of accounting, help students to find a job, and build a successful career. We appreciate the trust and cooperation with the Certified Institute of Management Accountants® (CIMA®), which is a leading global professional body for training management accounting professionals, and thank you for the high appreciation given to our University and its representative Natalia Melnyk.”

Andrew Harding, FCMA, CGMA, Chief Executive – Management Accounting at The Chartered Institute of Management Accounting, commented:

“It is an honour to recognise and celebrate those who have demonstrated remarkable commitment to their students and the accounting profession in the past year. All our winners and nominees are doing incredible work to help future generations realise their potential and give their career a head start. We are proud to call you our partners and truly appreciate your support.”

More than 400 nominations from educational institutions and individuals were submitted this year for consideration in four categories CIMA Teaching Excellence Award, CIMA Research Excellence Award, CIMA Campus Culture Excellence Award and CIMA Employability Excellence Award. In addition, a central award committee selected winners for the CIMA Prize-Winner Excellence Award, CIMA Global Excellence Award, and CGMA Campus of the Year Award based on CIMA exam performance in 2020 and 2021.
